

CPAR Social Media Rules of Engagement

For the general public

CPAR's social media platforms are used to share information about our projects, to showcase the local cultures we work with, and engage the general public in the work we are doing in Africa.

CPAR welcomes comments and questions about posts and is happy to answer or provide clarification on the topics posted.

To foster a positive and inclusive community, CPAR will remove posts that:

- are threatening, harassing, illegal, obscene, defamatory, libelous, or hostile towards any individual or entity.
- include phone numbers or email addresses of any individual or entity in the body of the comments, with the exception of CPAR's phone number and email address.
- infringe on the rights of CPAR or any individual or entity, including privacy, intellectual property or publication rights. This includes the improper use of (but is not limited to) images, logos, videos, content, documents, white papers, etc.
- promote or advertise a commercial product or solicit business, membership, financial or other support.
- include chain letters, or the same comment multiple times, or otherwise distribute SPAM.
- Allow any individual or entity to use their identification for posting or viewing comments.
- include comments under multiple names or use another person's name, identity or social media account.

CPAR reserves the right to:

- Ban future posts from people who repeatedly violate CPAR's terms and conditions. Such bans may include deleting past posts or banning the user from the page.
- Remove or edit comments at any time, whether or not they violate these terms and conditions.
- Remove posts or ban users who are in contravention of any Canadian anti-spam legislation.
